Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Yale Boys Make Fine Showing in County Y. M. C. A. Athletic Contests.

The boys of Yale participate for the first time in the County Y. contest in which every boy weighing over 60 lbs. took part. The County Committee offers to give to every boy in the county who can pass the international test, an athletic badge which is furnished by the International Athletic Department for those boys who can show themselves as having the standard amount of ability. The following boys won their athletic badges will be awarded to them at the opening of the fall term of school, as they must come from the International Y. M. C. A. in New York.

Name	Class	Per cent
Max Fead	60 to 80 lb.	85%
Clay Slosser	60 to 80 lb.	78%
Harold Wark	60 to 80 lb.	74%
Bernard Holcomb	111 to 125 lb.	72%
Albert Thomas	60 to 80 lb.	71%
Clinton Crandell	81 to 95 lb.	71%
Roy Carless	61 to 80 lb.	70%
Victor Learmont	111 to 125 lb.	67%
Olin Cameron	60 to 80 lb.	65%
George Regan	60 to 80 lb.	63%

The schools in the county are in a close contest for the county pennant which has also been offered by the county Y. M. C. A. This pennant to go to the school showing the best average per cent of all boys in their school. The county pennant was won last year by Marine City. As yet all the contests have not been held and the final result cannot be announced, but the County Secretary congratulates Yale on the fine record that was shown on the scoring sheets as the result of her first contest.

With very few exceptions every boy in Yale schools took a part in the contest and added their score to those who are striving to bring to Yale the county athletic honors.

Canning Demonstration

The first of a series of canning demonstrations which has been scheduled for St. Clair County was held at the home of Mrs. J. O. Root in Lynn township, Monday, June 11, at 2 o'clock. Miss Clara Morris, Extension Worker and former teacher at the M. A. C. had charge of the demonstration, and was ably assisted by Miss Alice Doty of Mt. Clemens. Miss Doty is a recent graduate of the college. That the women of this community are fully aware of the necessity of conserving our food products, and are a progressive and up-to-date group was evidenced by the number, about 60, who gathered to learn the latest and most improved methods of caring for fruits and vegetables. The housewife who remains at home and economizes and conserves the food products at her command is doing "her bit" just as surely and efficiently as the Red Cross worker who devotes her energies to relieving the sufferings of the war. Several women from Lapeer county, also a number from Sanilac county joined with the residents of St. Clair county in spending a very pleasant and profitable afternoon. Miss Morris very recently attended a canning school at Washington, and we feel that she brings to us very efficiently and graciously all the newest and best ideas pertaining to this subject.

COMMENCEMENT EVENTS.

JUNIOR BANQUET

On Thursday evening, June 7th, at eight o'clock, the annual junior banquet was given in honor of the seniors in the dining room of the Presbyterian church, being served by the ladies of the church.

The room and tables were very prettily decorated with flowers and class colors.

Covers were laid for ninety-five with neat place cards, and at the plate of each graduate of '17, a white rose lay. The menu consisted of three courses, a fruit salad, a meat course and ice cream and cake. Everything was very nice and all did ample justice to the repast. The sophomore girls waited upon the tables and Mrs. L. Roy Fuller acted as head waitress.

After the feast, the tables were cleared and punch served each guest. Jack Jardine then introduced the toastmaster, Supt. N. J. Brown, who of course needed little introduction, his long residence amongst us and his filling this office many times so acceptably and his happy faculty for speechmaking having won him popularity and an envied reputation.

With witty and pleasant remarks the toastmaster introduced the following persons for the various toasts and responses. The program proved very enjoyable and the junior banquet of 1917 goes down in history just as excellent and as successfully carried out as any of its predecessors.

BACCALAUREATE

The annual address to the graduates was given in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening by Rev. J. H. Rheingans.

The church was prettily decorated with flowers and blossoming plants, and filled to the doors with an interested audience.

As the members of the class and faculty entered the church and took their seats a march was played. An anthem was sung by the choir and a solo by Mrs. Clyde Cochrane.

The subject of the sermon was taken from Psalms 37-27, "Depart from evil, and do good, and dwell forever more." Many good thoughts were advanced and admonition given. Rev. Geach assisted with the pupil services.

PICNIC

On Wednesday afternoon the high school faculty, the graduates of '17 and those of '16 had planned to sail to Bear's Hills to spend a few pleasant hours. On account of the heavy storm which came up, the scheme was necessarily abandoned, but Mrs. A. V. Parmlee kindly opened her home and the picnic supper was served here with a jolly evening following.

The Commencement exercises and address which occur this, Thursday evening, and Alumni reunion tomorrow, Friday evening, will be given due notice next week.

Recital

Cards for this read as follows:—"St. Stephen's School of Music presents Leona Marian Holcomb in graduation recital, Auditorium, Yale, Friday, June eighth, nineteen hundred seventeen, at eight o'clock."

A large audience greeted Miss Holcomb, pianist, and her assistants, Misses Marie E. McNulty, Reader, and Annuciata Casello, Vocalist, and listened attentively and appreciatively to an excellent program.

The first two named are Yale young ladies who are succeeding nicely in their chosen vocation.

Miss Casello is a young lady of Port Huron, with a well trained voice.

After the recital, a large number stayed to dance.
